4 MS. JACKSON: My name is Doris Jackson. I
5 have been to many, many of these meetings and have
6 written a lot of comments, all dealing with the facts
7 and figures and so on. I decided not to do that today.
8 And I am here just a citizen, not as chairman of the 9 Town Advisory Council or anything else that I'm 10 affiliated with.

11 Sometimes we get nervous when we stand up
12 before people. Sometimes we stutter. The people that 13 stutter, often they sing a song.

14 (SINGING)

15 Oh, we love Amargosa in the summer. We love
16 Amargosa in the fall. We love Amargosa mostly, 'cause
17 we're the dumbest people of them all.

18 The people here just think of jobs and money.
19 Burying all those rods just ain't that funny. With the 20 money earned they'll really be in good stead. But you
21 can't take it with you when you're dead.

22 Our valley is a designated basin. All the 23 water that we now use to drink, will go directly to the 24 mountain, and what we get will be contaminate.

25 Oh, we love Amargosa in the summer. We love

1 Amargosa in the fall. We love Amargosa mostly 'cause
2 we're the martyred people of them all.

3 The state and county get their dirty money.
4 From the government the money is called PET. The money
5 spent for a lot of good causes, but not one cent does
6 Amargosa get.

7 The nation doesn't care about our valley.
8 They don't know about our way of life. If the dump was 9 in their backyard, they'd rally, and then they'd know
10 about our stress and strife.

11 Oh, we love Amargosa in the summer. We love
12 Amargosa in the fall. We love Amargosa mostly, but 13 we're the most neglected of you all.

14 Now people in the East use nuclear power to 15 light their cities brightly near and far. So they can
16 keep their used up rods completely, and store them
17 right exactly where they are.

18 Now we don't need the waste of our whole
19 country. We don't want to be our nation's dump. If 20 you think that you can bury all your problems, well,
21 you know that you can kiss our royal rump.

22 Oh, we love Amargosa in the summer. We love

23 Amargosa in the fall. We love Amargosa mostly, but

24 we'll be the next prime target of you all.

25 Thank you.
